

Public Lectures and Conferences in Japan by Dr. Vivien Prigent

1)

Date and Time: Friday 18 October, 2019 18:30-20:30

Place: 1103 at Building 1, Ikebukuro Campus, Rikkyo University

Symposium: Historiographical Approach in Byzantine Studies: France and Japan

1. Minoru Ozawa (Rikkyo):

The Paul Lemerle Library (Rikkyo) in Postwar Japanese Byzantine Studies

2. Vivien Prigent (CNRS):

The Scientific Endeavors of the Assumptionists and the Development of French Byzantinology

Language: English

Powered by Rikkyo University and Kakenhi (19H00546)

2)

Date & Time: Wednesday 23 October, 2019 18:30-20:30

Place: D601 at Building 14, Ikebukuro Campus, Rikkyo University

Symposium: Seals, Signature, and Sigillography in Medieval Eurasia

1. Vivien Prigent (CNRS):

Byzantine Sigillography: An Introduction

2. Yasuhiro Yokkaichi (Rikkyo):

Seals in the Mongol Empire

3. Yuki Sato (Rikkyo):

Seals and Kaō-Signatures in Medieval Japan (in Japanese)

Language: English & Japanese

Powered by Rikkyo University and Kakenhi (19H01299)

3)

Date & Time: Thursday 24 October 2019 18:30-20:00

Place: Meeting Room at Building 12, Ikebukuro Campus, Rikkyo University

Speaker: Vivien Prigent (CNRS)

Title: Governing a Peripheral Province: The Case of Byzantine Sicily

Language: English

Powered by Rikkyo University and Kakenhi (19H01328)

4)

Date & Time: Monday 28 October, 2019 15:30-18:00

Place: Room122, Graduate School of Letters and Human Sciences Building, Sugimoto Campus, Osaka City University

Speaker: Vivien Prigent (CNRS)

Title: Making Gold from Lead: Byzantine Sigillography and the Social History of the Byzantine Empire

Discussant 1: Koji Murata (Nagoya University) on the Reading of Byzantine Seals

Discussant 2: Toru Iwashita (Osaka City University) on Mokkan (wooden tablets) for Japanese Ancient History
(in Japanese with English translation)

Language: English & Japanese

Powered by Osaka City University, Rikkyo University, and JSPS Kakenhi (19H01328)